Dear Mr. Newell:

Your letter received and am sorry there was nothing in the forty seven coins, that would have been of value.

I have had another offer for the coins, and do not wish to sell the seven copper coins.

Am enclosing fifty five cents in stamps to cover the return and registering them.

Thanking you for your trouble in doing what you could for me in trying to find a purchaser.

Am planning another trip to Europe this fall and just might find other coins, if I do I will stop in the office while in New York, thanking you again, I am

Sincerely

Grace A. Gerts.
